

An Tuiseal Gnídeach.

There are 2 awkward situations you have to watch out for with the genitive.

- ① Where you have to make a noun genitive that has an adjective coming after it. In this case, you have to make the adjective genitive too.

ex. Seán Óg's house = Teach Sheáin Óig.

Dónall Mór's car = Carr Dhónail Mhóir.

- ② Where there are 2 genitives in a row. In this case, have to put just a h on the first genitive, and handle the second as normal.

ex. Manager of the chemist's shop =

Bainisteoir shiopa an phoirtigéara.

In the middle of the bedroom =

I lár an sheomra leapa.

Nóta: In a double genitive like this, you will never have 2 an's. You have to drop the first an to make way for the second.

ex. an seomra

+ an múinteoir eolaíochta

= an seomra an múinteoir eolaíochta X

= seomra an mhúinteoir eolaíochta ✓
